Humberside Police seek a Review of the Premises Licence for COTTAGE BECK CORNER SHOP, 1 Cemetary Road, Scunthorpe. The premises licence holder (PLH) and designated premises supervisor (DPS) is Taner CAKMAK.

Humberside Police apply for this on the grounds that the operation of the premises and the person(s) linked to the premises undermines the Prevention of Crime and Disorder, Public safety and Protection of Children from harm licensing objectives. The Chief Constable respectfully submits that the premises and person(s) linked to the premises are involved in knowingly storing and supplying smuggled non duty paid illicit tobacco.

Humberside Police say by engaging in this type of criminality there is a clear disregard towards the licensing objectives. There is also a concern by storing and selling these items they may well have no regard to statutory age restrictions for alcohol and any genuine cigarettes, putting children at risk.

The tobacco seized is illicit and Police are not certain of the actual contents of the cigarettes. Due to this these items can be sold far cheaper than comparable genuine branded products which are fully duty paid and display the appropriate health warnings. The prices these shops are able to sell these products for are considered to be children's pocket money prices (£3.50 - £6.00) and the unscrupulous premises that sell these items may target children or vulnerable people or turn a blind eye to those vulnerabilities.

This case has now been to court and guilty pleas were entered and convictions secured.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 3)

In November 2018 North Lincolnshire Trading Standards reacted to information that numerous licensed premises in SCUNTHORPE were selling illicit tobacco. Two successful test purchase operations were conducted at COTTAGE BECK CORNER SHOP, 1 CEMETARY ROAD, SCUNTHORPE on 27th and 28th November 2018 respectively.

On the 27th November 2018 a packet of L&M cigarettes were purchased after the shop assistant could not supply Marlboro. The L&M cigarettes were purchased on this occasion for £6.00. The cigarettes were in NON standard packaging and were not displaying the English health warnings.

On the 28th November 2018 a packet of Richmond cigarettes were purchased for £3.50. The cigarettes were in NON standard packaging and were not displaying the English health warnings.

The average price of a packet of 20 cigarettes in the United Kingdom is currently £10.77.

A follow up inspection was carried out by Police and Trading Standards officers on 6th December 2018. During this visit a small number of packets of foreign non duty paid cigarettes were located in a bag in the store room. 2 packets of Chesterfield cigarettes and 3 packets of Marlboro cigarettes. Also located in the store room were a number of bag for life shopping bags. One of these bags contained a receipt for 40 packets of L&M cigarettes purchased from a petrol station in Lithuania.

On 28th February 2019 the owner, licence holder and designated premises supervisor of COTTAGE BECK CORNER SHOP Mr Taner CAKMAK was interviewed under caution by Trading Standards officers from North Lincolnshire council. During the interview he accepted that he had knowledge that illicit non duty paid cigarettes were being stored and sold from his shop COTTAGE BECK CORNER SHOP. He stated that he had purchased the cigarettes for his own use and did not like them so decided to sell them from the shop.

On the 31st January 2020 Taner CAKMAK appeared at Humber Magistrates Court Grimsby and pleaded guilty to 5 offences and was subsequently convicted of these. Two convictions relate to the item purchased on 27th November 2018, One for the item purchased on 28th November 2018 and two further conviction from 6th December 2018 when other items were located on the follow up visit.

The offences convicted were for possession and supply of tobacco in breach of packaging regulations, Supply and possess tobacco not carrying a combined health warning and sell goods bearing a false trade mark.

Mr CAKMAK was fined £500 and charged for costs at £450 and a victim surcharge of £50 totalling £1000.

Humberside Police say by engaging in this type of criminality there is a clear disregard towards the licensing objectives. There is also a concern by storing and selling these items they may well have no regard to statutory age restrictions for alcohol and cigarettes putting children at risk.

The tobacco sold is illicit and the contents are not known. Due to this these items can be sold far cheaper than comparable branded products with duty paid and the appropriate health and safety warnings displayed. The prices these shops are able to sell these products for are considered to be pocket money prices and the unscrupulous premises that sell these items may target children or vulnerable people or turn a blind eye to those vulnerabilities.

On 27 November 2018, I attended North Lincolnshire Council at Church Square House, Scunthorpe where I was briefed by Andrew Woad, a Trading Standards Officer, about the tobacco test purchasing operation being conducted on both that day and the following day. I was told that I would be going into specific shops and attempting to buy cheap tobacco. I was informed that I had been authorised by North Lincolnshire Council to carry out such test purchases. I was told that I would be recording the sales using a covert camera and I was shown how to operate this. On 27 November 2018, I was accompanied by Andrew Woad and Steve Blanchard from North Lincolnshire Council Trading Standards and I was driven to various locations across North Lincolnshire. I was told that one of the shops to visit was called Cottage Beck Corner Shop and the officers pointed out this shop as we drove past. I got out of the car and walked to the shop. At approximately 15:20 hours, I entered Cottage Beck Corner shop and asked for Marlboro cigarettes. The woman behind the counter said they didn't have Marlboro but she offered L&M so I accepted. I paid £6.00 for the packet of L&M cigarettes. She reached to her left under the counter and got the cigarettes. This woman was slim build with long dark brown hair, which was pinned up. She had an oval shaped face, olive complexion and was about 40 years old and 165cm in height. She wore a dark red roll neck top. At the end of the days test purchasing operation, I handed the covert camera device back to Andrew Woad. On 28 November 2018, I was collected from my hotel by Tina Morgan and Andrew Balsillie from North Lincolnshire Council Trading Standards. Tina Morgan briefed on the plan for the day, which was to follow the same format as the day before. Again, I was told that I would be recording the transaction using a covert camera and I was shown how to operate this. At approximately 13:35 hours, I entered Cottage Beck Corner shop. I did not use the covert camera for this test purchase as it had run out of battery power. I asked the man behind the counter for Richmond cigarettes. The man got the cigarettes from under the counter. I paid £3.50 for the Richmond. The man was Middle Eastern, possibly Kurdish or Turkish. He was heavy build with short dark receding hair that was greying. He had a full face and facial hair of about 2 day's growth that was shaped. He looked about 50 years old. The man wore a light & dark grey shell suit jacket that had an orange zip and matching trousers. He wore a dark grey sweatshirt underneath the jacket. I left the shop and returned to the car, where I handed the cigarettes to Tina Morgan and provided the description of the seller to Andrew Balsillie. At the end of the days test purchasing exercise, I handed the covert camera device back to Tina Morg[redacted]

I am employed by North Lincolnshire Council as a Trading Standards Officer based at Church Square House, Scunthorpe. I have held this position for 21 years. In this capacity, I am authorised to enforce a range of consumer protection legislation, including, amongst others, the Trade Marks Act 1994, the Consumer Rights Acts 2015 and associated legislation

On 6th December 2018, I participated in Operation Indigo, an enforcement exercise targeting sellers of illegal tobacco. The operation started in the morning with a joint Trading Standards and Humberside Police briefing at Church Square House. Before leaving the office, Trading Standards staff collected their personal protective equipment and covert body worn cameras to record the visits. I was allocated camera marked TS4.

At 14.00, I entered the premises of Cottage Beck Corner Store, 1 Cemetery

Road, Scunthorpe accompanied by Andrew WOAD, Trading Standards Officer and Andrew BALSILLIE, Technical Officer, together with PC Garry Chapman and Alison Saxby of Humberside Police. I introduced us to the female behind the counter and explained the reason for our visit. I issued a notice of entry, a photograph of which I produce in evidence as item number KD/CB/IN/4, signed and dated by me. The female shop assistant gave her name as [redacted] She advised me that the owner of the store was a Taner CAKMAĆK but that he was unavailable as he was in hospital in Hull. I asked Ms [redacted] if there was any illegal tobacco on the premises to which she replied "no". She passed me a bag from behind the counter which contained a small number of sleeves of genuine tobacco.

I then spoke to Alison Saxby who advised me that she had found a small quantity of illegal tobacco in the rear of the premises consisting of a sleeve with 2 packs of Chesterfield cigarettes and a sleeve with 3 packs of Marlboro Gold. Ms [redacted] said that she had no knowledge of the cigarettes and suggested that "maybe the boss smoked them".

I then entered the rear of the premises and found a reusable bag with a number of other bags inside it together with a till receipt for 40 units of L&M Loft purchased from Baltic Petroleum.

I seized the 5 packs of cigarettes which I produce in evidence as item numbers KD/CB/IN/1 (2 packs of Chesterfield) and KD/CB/IN/2 (3 packs of Marlboro Gold) signed and dated by me. I also seized the till receipt for the L&M cigarettes which I produce in evidence as item number KD/CB/IN/3, signed and dated by me. I sealed them in evidence bag number N00225775. I left a seizure notice number 623, a copy of which I produce in evidence as with the Police & Criminal Evidence Act 1984, Code E for Audio Recording of Suspects. During the interview, Mr Cakmak produced a licence agreement made between himself and [redacted] detailing payments to be made to Mr [redacted] as Licensor. I produce a copy of this agreement in evidence as item number KD/CB/4.

At the conclusion of the interview, I signed the master CD seal, number 000240. I produce the master disc in evidence as item number KD/CB/5, signed and dated by me. A written record of the interview was subsequently made, which I produce in evidence as item number KD/CB/6 signed and dated by me.

item number KD/CB/IN/5, signed and dated by me.

We left the premises at 14:55 and returned to the Trading Standards Office where I put the evidence into secure storage.

My colleague, Tina MORGAN, Trading Standards Officer, subsequently advised me that she had itemised the seized tobacco and produced a spreadsheet with the details which I recognise as item number TM/CB/1.

On 7th February 2019, I caused a letter to be sent to the premises of Cottage Beck Corner Shop Ltd, inviting the Director of the company, Mr Taner CAKMAK to attend a formal interview at 1pm on Thursday 28th February 2019. I produce a copy of the letter as item number KD/CB/1, signed and dated by me. Enclosed with the letter was a notice of rights issued under Code C of PACE. I produce a copy of this notice in evidence as item number KD/CB/2, signed and dated by me.

On 26th February 2019, I checked the Companies House website and confirmed the current Director details for the company as Taner CAKMAK. The previous joint Director, [redacted] resigned on 30th November 2018, indicating that both were Directors at the time of the test purchases but Mr Cakmak alone was Director at the time of the inspection and seizure. I produce a copy of the Companies House print out as item number KD/CB/3, signed and dated by me.

On Thursday 28th February 2019, I interviewed Mr Cakmak, together with Andrew BALSILLIE, Technical Officer, regarding two test purchases of illicit tobacco on 27th November 2018 and 28th November 2018 and subsequent seizure of illicit tobacco on 6th December 2018, both from the premises of Cottage Beck Corner Shop Ltd. I am employed by North Lincolnshire Council Trading Standards Department, based at Church Square House, Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire DN15 6XQ. I am authorised to enforce a number of Trading Standards legislation including the provisions of the Trade Marks Act 1994 and the Consumer Rights Act 2015 and associated legislation.

On 6 November 2018, I attended a meeting between the Trading Standards and Humberside Police licensing team. The purpose was to discuss issues relating to illicit cigarettes and tobacco sold by traders in Scunthorpe. As part of the agreed actions, Trading Standards would conduct a test purchase exercise using a Polish-speaking person with follow up visits to premises that sold illicit items. The attempted sales were going to be recorded using a covert camera.

On 28 November 2018, I accompanied Tina MORGAN Trading Standards Officer and BOBBIE a Polish-speaking woman on a test purchase exercise.

One of the premises tested was Cottage Beck Corner Shop, 1 Cemetery Road, Scunthorpe. Bobbie went to the premises and returned to the car at 13:35 hours, with a pack of Richmond cigarettes. I recorded the details of what Bobbie described during the sale in the Test Purchase Sales Log. I produce this log as item AB/CB/TP/1 signed and dated by me.

I could see that the cigarettes were not in standardised packaging as required by The Standardised Packaging of Tobacco Products Regulations 2015 and the health warnings were not in English as required by the Tobacco and Related Products Regulations 2016. Tina Morgan photographed the illicit cigarettes and enclosed them in an evidence bag N00225456.

On returning to the office, the evidence bag containing the cigarettes were recorded in the secure log and put in the secured store.

On the 6 December 2018, I attended a co-ordinating briefing between Humberside Police Licensing Team and Trading Standards at Church Square House. The brief lead by Andrew WOAD Team Leader Trading Standards included a review of the sales and the allocation of personnel to do the follow up inspections. I was to assist Andrew Woad, Karen Dinsdale Trading Standards Officer and two Police Licensing Officers to do an inspection of Cottage Beck Corner Shop.

We entered the shop and Karen Dinsdale introduced herself and showed her warrant to the female shop assistant. She told the assistant that in a test purchase exercise, illicit cigarettes had been purchased from the shop. She also asked if the assistant had any illicit cigarettes on the premises or knew of any. The assistant replied that she did not. I then inspected the front of the shop whilst Andrew Woad and the Police team looked in the storeroom. I did not find any illicit cigarettes in the front of the shop. However, Andrew Woad showed me two double packs of Eastern European cigarettes found in a snack box. Andrew Woad said the snack box was on the top shelf within the storeroom. He also showed me a receipt for a quantity of L&M cigarettes, the receipt addressed Baltic Petroleum. I took photographs of the cigarettes, snack box and both receipt and the cigarettes. Karen Dinsdale then put the items into evidence bags. On returning to the office the evidence bags were recorded in the evidence log and put into the secure storeroom.

Later that day I downloaded the photographs from the camera and burnt them to a Write Once Read Many (WORM) CD-R, which I produce identified as item AB/CB/IN/1. I later printed a hard copy of each photograph, which I produce identified as items AB/CB/IN/1A to 1C and the receipt photograph as AB/CBCIN/1D.

On 13 February 2019, Neil FERGUSON of Imperial Tobacco came to the Trading Standards Office, Church Square House. The purpose of this visit was for him to examine the illicit tobacco products that his company hold the copyright too. I assisted Tina MORGAN Trading Standards Officer to remove from the secure store evidence bags that contained Imperial Tobacco products. Some of these bags were in relation to the cigarettes seized from Cottage Beck Corner Store. The evidence bags opened in Mr Fergusons presence. I observed him examine the cigarettes and then assisted in re-sealing them. After the examination, the evidence bags were re-sealed and returned to secure storage.

Signed: [redacted] Date: 17/10/19

On 28 February 2019, I was present when Karen Dinsdale interviewed Taner KAKMAK the owner of Cottage Beck Road Corner Shop at the Trading Standards Office, Church Square House, Scunthorpe. I was the second interviewer. The interview recorded in accordance with the Police & Criminal Evidence Act 1984, Code E for Audio Recording of Suspects. The interview commenced at 15:00 hours and concluded at 15:50 hours. At the conclusion of the interview, all present signed the master CD seal, number 000240.

Cottage Beck Corner Shop Ltd - Premises Licence Review application by Humberside Police

Karen Woad

Tue 09/06/2020 13:40

To:Licensing <Licensing@northlincs.gov.uk>;

Good afternoon,

Trading Standards are in receipt of the application to review the premises licence at:

Cottage Beck Corner Shop Ltd
1 Cemetery Road
Scunthorpe
DN16 1DY

As a Responsible Authority under the Licensing Act 2003, Trading Standards wish to support the review of this licence under the following licensing objectives:

1.Prevention of crime and disorder

In late 2018/early 2019, Trading Standards and Humberside Police conducted a joint operation where a number of premises in Scunthorpe were visited as part of 'Operation Indigo', an exercise targeting premises where intelligence had been received about sales of illicit tobacco (counterfeit, non-duty paid and illicit white cigarettes and hand rolling tobacco). The Police application details the findings of the investigations and subsequent results of the prosecution which Trading Standards brought against the Limited Company and Mr Taner Cakmak, the Company Director.
Both the Company and Mr Cakmak pleaded guilty to the charges brought in relation to the illicit/counterfeit tobacco sold from the premises during the test purchasing exercise and the small quantity found during the subsequent inspection. The guilty plea by both the Company and the Director are blatant admissions of the crime being committed on the premises and is indicative that if the Director is knowingly engaging in criminality in other area of the business operation, then there is every possibility that this could extend to crimes in relation to the sale of alcohol.
Since the enforcement action was brought, Trading Standards have continued to receive complaints about the premises, with 10 further intelligence reports that the premises continue to engage in the illegal activity of supplying illicit tobacco.

2. Public safety

The cigarettes purchased from the premises were not in standardised (i.e. plain) packaging, nor did they have English health warnings. This legislation was brought into the UK to make the products less attractive to children and to warn consumers about the dangers to health of smoking tobacco.
The packets were purchased for £3.50 and £6.00, making them considerably more attractive and affordable than genuine cigarettes, both for regular smokers and children, fuelling addiction and providing no incentive to quit.
Although we have not had these products tested, previous similar findings have revealed that such cigarettes not made for the UK market do not meet UK safety standards requiring that all cigarettes are selfextinguishing when not being smoked. The absence of such features required to control the burn have been attributed to house fires in the region.

3. Protection of children from harm

Trading Standards share the concerns of the Police that engaging in this type of criminality shows clear disregard towards the licensing objectives and raises concern that further disregard will may well be displayed towards the statutory age restrictions for cigarettes and alcohol, putting children at risk.

Kind regards

Karen Woad (nee Dinsdale)

In reply to your letter and enclosures received on 19 May 2020 regarding the above-mentioned application.

The Fire Authority make the following comments regarding the review of the Premises Licence

Fire risk assessment

A responsible person is required to carry out a suitable and sufficient fire risk assessment of the premises. It is recommended that significant findings of the fire risk assessment must be available for inspection by a member of the Fire Authority.

Means of escape

Due to the presence of a sleeping risk above your premises (flat), confirmation that 60 minutes fire separation exists between the commercial and residential areas must be made.

Means of warning

If 60 minutes fire separation is not proven then 30 minute fire separation may be acceptable provided an interlinked fire alarm system is also installed. This fire alarm system should be designed and installed to current British Standard BS5839-6:2016.

Emergency lighting

An assessment of the emergency escape lighting should be carried out to ensure that all escape routes including external escape routes are available at all material times to relevant persons.

Fire fighting equipment

Portable fire fighting equipment should be provided within the premises. The size and type determined by the hazards identified within your fire risk assessment.

If you require further advice or clarification of any of these matters, please contact the Fire Safety Inspector at the address overleaf.

Yours faithfully

To whom it may concern,

We are writing in our capacity as the elected members of Frodingham Ward regarding the application for the review of a premises licence for Cottage Beck Corner Shop, 1 Cemetery Road, Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire, DN16 1DY.

This area of the ward has particularly high levels of deprivation which makes residents vulnerable to the attraction of cheap alcohol and cigarettes which may have been illegally sourced.

There have also been longstanding and numerous concerns relating to this premises which include antisocial behaviour and intimidation from people congregating outside the premises.

It is also worth noting in general there are sufficient premised off licences and general stores in the neighbourhood and we are concerned that too much competition may make shop owners more inclined to look for illegal ways to make a profit and continue trading.

Therefore we wish to submit our objections to this application.

Yours sincerely,
